About the Program

MISSION STATEMENT

The Mission of the Volunteer Program is to offer military, their spouses, retirees and civilians a central location to obtain information regarding volunteer opportunities on and off base.

Camp Pendleton's Volunteer Program offers a variety of services to military personnel, military spouses, military families, youth, veterans & civilians. You can become a part of these programs by volunteering your time and energy. The Volunteer Program strives to provide learning opportunities training, job experience, development of interpersonal relationships, networking and academic enhancement through the application of classroom knowledge. In addition, we hope to provide each volunteer with a sense of well-being, sprit of community and experiences that will be fulfilling to both the volunteer and the person and/or the organization with whom the volunteer works.

*"You make a living by what you get.
You make a life by what you give."*
Winston Churchill

VOLUNTEER AWARDS

Camp Pendleton takes pride in the volunteer efforts of our community. Therefore, volunteers are recognized regularly. Some of our awards include:

- Volunteer of the Month
- Volunteer of the Year
- Military Volunteer of the Year
- Volunteer Unit of the Year
- Military Outstanding Volunteer Service Award

Awards may consist of certificates and/or tokens of appreciation, reserved parking spaces at the commissary, lunch at the South Mesa Staff Club, and others.

In addition, reserve and active duty military may be eligible for the:

Military Outstanding Volunteer Service Medal.

To find out more about this and other awards, please contact the Volunteer Program at (760) 725-3856.
