

Frequently Asked Questions

Who qualifies for the Single Marine Program?

All Single or Unaccompanied Active Duty personnel aboard Camp Pendleton. There is no "Membership" for the program, all eligible service members are automatically included.

If I have a girlfriend or boyfriend can I still participate in the SMP activities and events?

Absolutely, you will be completely eligible for the program's benefits until you are married.

I am a single parent can I participate in the program?

All single service members aboard Camp Pendleton can take advantage of the program. Children are not authorized at centers or on trips.

Is the SMP a dating service?

No, we are a Quality of Life program dedicated to serving the single service members aboard Camp Pendleton.

If I have an idea for an event can I present it to the program for consideration?

New ideas are what keep this program running. You have two options: present your ideas directly to the SMP council or work with your unit representative to speak for you.

How do I contact my unit representative?

If your unit rep has not contacted you, utilize your chain of command to seek your rep out.

If my unit does not have a representative how do I get one?

Through your chain of command, present the issue as a "Quality of Life" concern. Every command should appoint an SMP representative in writing. You may also contact the base SMP coordinator to assist working with your command.

How do I become a Unit representative for the SMP?

If your unit does not have an appointed SMP representative, ask your chain of command or contact the base SMP coordinator. If your unit has a rep, you may still come on as an alternate or assistant SMP representative. All Single Marines regardless of their unit rep status are eligible for the SMP executive council as well.

SMP Recreation Centers

The Single Marine Program Recreation Centers are a unique place for service members to relax and enjoy. These facilities are open only to Active Duty and their guests age 18 and older. All the Recreation Centers are tobacco free. All features at the Rec Center are 100% free. The Recreation Centers are not rented out for special events.

SMP Program

Camp Pendleton SMP Mission:

To enhance quality of life for single service members by providing positive and rewarding outlets through recreation, community involvement, and dynamic facilities.

Base Wide SMP Meetings

Base wide meetings are the first Thursday of each month at 1330 at various locations throughout the base. Join our SMP staff and unit reps as we discuss quality of life issues, upcoming recreational events and volunteer opportunities. Call 760-725-6722 for meeting location.

Volunteer Opportunities

Give back to the community and get involved in one of our volunteer projects. Example of projects include: Special Olympics, Habitat for Humanity and retirement home visits. Check our monthly calendar for a schedule of upcoming volunteer opportunities.

Weekend Trips

Trips usually depart on Friday morning and return Sunday evening. Cost per Marine/Sailor vary by trip and includes transportation and lodging (cost is usually 1/4 the actual cost). The number of trips scheduled are based on funding. Annual trips include: skiing, white water rafting, Las Vegas & San Francisco.

One Day Special Events

Events can be both on-base activities such as movie nights, BBQs, poker tournaments or off-base activities such as dinner cruises, fishing trips, Magic Mountain trips, and dinner shows. On-base events are usually free, off-base events vary and include transportation and entrance fees. The number of events scheduled annually is based on funding.
