HOW IT WORKS

Our counselors will partner with you to listen to your concerns and assess your needs. Together, you will develop goals for your counseling sessions. They will also link you to other M&FP Partner Programs so that you are supported through the entire process.

Our team are subject matter experts in the following areas and can offer counseling designed to meet your specific needs.

- Parent-Child Relationships
- Partner and Sibling Issues
- Occupational Problems
- Anger and Anxiety Issues
- Stress and Adjustment Issues
- Grief and Loss

BENEFITS OF COUNSELING

Increased self-confidence, better family communication, improved well-being and overall mission readiness.

COUNSELOR QUALIFICATIONS

All counselors are experienced working with service members and military families. They are licensed and credentialed to practice mental health counseling within the USMC.
