GROUP & PRIVATE LESSONS

(ADULTS AND CHILDREN AGES 7 AND UP)

Lessons in multiple disciplines and skill levels are taught by qualified instructors. Students learn all aspects of horsemanship in group or private lessons. These lessons are one hour in length and include saddling and cool down time. School horses are available for riders who do not own their own horse.

TINY TOT LESSONS

(CHILDREN AGES 4-6)

A fun half hour private lesson that is a great first step for any eager young rider. This class teaches the foundations of good horsemanship geared toward a young audience. Instruction may vary with age and skill of the rider, but will include grooming, saddling, balance and the beginnings of basic controls of the horse.

TRAILS

(ADULTS AND CHILDREN AGES 7 AND UP)

Take a ride through the scenic hills of Camp Pendleton and learn to apply basic horsemanship skills to trail challenges. All trails are one hour in length. Novice group and private trails are offered for a relaxing ride that is perfect for the beginning rider. Intermediate and advanced trails are also available for more experienced riders.
