MCCS Marine & Family Programs Camp Pendleton
VOLUNTEER & SKILLS DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM

WHAT CAN THE VOLUNTEER COORDINATOR DO FOR YOU?

- Helps develop skills or learn new ones
- Discover opportunities and identify career options
- Gain experience and work history to build a better resume
- Develop a professional network
- Give a sense of self-worth and make friends
- Support and strengthen our military community

CAMP PENDLETON'S VOLUNTEER COORDINATOR PROGRAM offers a variety of services to military personnel, military family members (to include youth), veterans and civilians. You can become a part of these programs by volunteering your time and energy. The Volunteer Program strives to provide learning opportunities, training, job experience, development of interpersonal relationships and networking.

In addition, we hope to provide each volunteer with a sense of well-being, spirit of community and experiences that will be fulfilling to both the volunteer and the person and/or the organization with whom the volunteer works.

VOLUNTEER AWARDS

Camp Pendleton takes pride in the volunteer efforts of our community. Therefore, volunteers are recognized regularly. Some of our awards include:

- Volunteer of the Month
- Volunteer of the Quarter
- Volunteer of the Year
- Military Volunteer of the Year
- Volunteer Unit of the Year

Awards may consist of certificates and/or tokens of appreciation, reserved parking spaces at the commissary and others.

In addition, reserve and active duty military may be eligible for the Military Outstanding Volunteer Service Medal.

To find out more about this and other awards, please contact the Volunteer Program at :
