

NAVIGATION

This class is designed for those looking to hone your navigational skills on the water, or you are preparing for a destination cruises this is the course for you. This weekend course will cover charting, basic navigation, set and drift, as well as other applications that will help. There will be no sailing skills required for this course; it will be taught in a classroom environment.

Navigation tools and chart can be purchased through the Marina, or you may borrow tools for this course. However, Chart #18740 is required.

Need to sign up in advance for course there is some prep work sent to you by the instructor.

No Prerequisite for this course.